ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

DUSKY DIGGERS

Of the Hocking Valley Fire on the Men Who Guard the Non-Union Mine-Workmen.

Governor Hoadly Makes a Tour, But is Received Coldly by the Sons of Toil.

Great Labor Demonstration in New York City--News From All Parts of the Country.

Armed Miners Attack the Guards--Militia Ordered to the Scene.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 1.—Reports came from the Hocking Valley that the striking miners at Snake Hollow made an attack upon the guards at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, and one of the guards was killed and two wounded. The report is that there are about 3,000 miners in the number who made the attack, they having come in from the surrounding country. The telegraph lines are all cut, and the sheriffs who are in the vicinity are thus prevented from having communication with the governor, so they could call out the militia. One of the hoppers was burned during the night, entailing a loss of about $4,000. The Columbus and Hocking Valley officials and the coal companies sent down a special train early yesterday morning, and further trouble is expected later in the day or to-morrow. The sheriffs of adjoining counties appealed for help and the state militia is being held to await orders from the governor. The Lancaster company is at Logan guarding the jail. The Circleville and New Lexington companies have been taken by special train to Lancaster, and all the rest of the troops ordered out are being held at Columbus. The governor left on a special train for the scene of the troubles to investigate the matter for himself, and will then order forward the troops if he thinks it necessary.

LOGAN, Ohio, Sept. 1.—Everything is quiet in the valley this morning and no authentic report of damage to person or property last night. There was a rumor this morning that a man had been killed at Buchtel but it lacks confirmation and probably there is nothing in the report. Telegraphic communication is in good shape this morning and it was learned that there was continued firing last night between strikers and guards. It is not learned yet that any person was injured. The governor arrived here on a special train early this morning and is disposed to learn all he can regarding the situation before ordering more troops on the ground. He is furnished with a special train by the road and is accompanied by his private secretary, Dan McConville Walter Crafts, of the Hocking Coal company, Frank Merrick, attorney for the latter company, and a representative of the associated press. The governor held a consultation with the leading citizens of Logan this morning, among them Judge Freisner, Col. Seth Weldy, the sheriff and others. He says he has formed no definite conclusion as yet from the talk he has had but will make a circuit of the mines to-day and talk to the leaders on both sides. He will be accompanied by the sheriff, Judge Freisner and others.

Frank Moody is in jail here. He was arrested for participating in a riot Saturday night and for shooting Wm. Hare. One of the guards made a full confession this morning in which he has given the the names of the six leaders in the attack of Saturday night. Sheriff McCathy will furnish the names of those implicated as soon as they can be arrested. Moody is in jail here and the presence of the military about the jail seems to have had the effect to make him weaken.

NOTHING NEW.

COLUMBUS, O. Sept. 1.—Nothing has been heard yet from the governor and his party, troops are still held in waiting. Advices from the Hocking Valley indicate that the firing around the mines and in the woods last night resulted in no casualties.

HOADLY EN ROUTE.

NEW STRAITSVILLE, Sept. 1.—Judge Triesner, of Logan, who was in consultation with Governor Hoadley, asserts that the worst of the trouble in the valley is over, and the governor says Friesner is charged with a great deal of responsibility in the matter and considers his opinion of considerable force. The governor left Logan at 9:30 for a trip to the principal mining towns, accompanied by Sheriff McCarthy and several others. Before leaving he telegraphed to all points that he wanted to meet prominent miners and hear their side of the story. At all stations a large number of miners were out to meet the train. The governor and a few others went from Logan to the mine where the hopper was burned, and just as they started three cheers were proposed for the governor. They were very weak and without enthusiasm. Some miners say thr trip is only a political scheme.

OTHERS JOIN THE STRIKERS.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 1.—The miners in the Ohio Central region, along Sunday Creek, went out to-day on a pretext of not getting the September advance. They are expected to join the Hocking strike, it being adjacent.

EXCITEMENT AT GORE.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 1.—At Gore the excitement is unabated and there were rumors of more outbreaks last night, of which no particulars are obtainable. Three non-union miners are at work this morning but threats of violence against them are growing more and more open. Governor Hoadley's movements are not definitely known, except that he left Logan and it is thought he is making a personal appeal to the strikers.

THEN AND NOW.

The "Irish World" Calls Blaine a Pro-British Secretary and Flunkey in 1881-2.

Accuses Him of Demagogism—Declares He Should Not Again be Placed

In any Important Position Where He Could Disgrace the American Government.

It is now generally conceded that Blaine has no chance for election unless he obtains the Irish-American vote and he and his friends are therefore bidding for it most vigorously, and under all the circumstances, equally audacious. They are leaving no means untried and availing themselves of every agency to accomplish their purpose.

The Irish World has for some time since the nomination of Blaine been very vigorously at work in his interest, endeavoring by every means to influence the Irish vote so that Blaine's election may be secured.

The Daily News, of this city, in each issue quotes from the Irish World and expresses great love for the Irish people. Look back over the files of the News and see how often it has published a list of the Irish Catholics holding office in Fort Wayne in order to secure the defeat of some person of that nationality or religious belief. Look at the files of the News when the "escaped nun," Edith O'Gorman, came here to vilify, malign and abuse the holy order of the sisterhood, the members of which devote their life to charity and education. The News supported this female, puplished her remarks and held her up to the community as a woman "freed from the bonds of tyranny and bigotry." Now this paper asks the Irish Catholic support, that a renegade Catholic may be boosted into the office of president.

Below we publish from the Irish World of 1881 and 1882, showing conclusively that Blaine is no more entitled to Irish American support than a native Hottentot is entitled to be president of this great republic. Read and be convinced:

[Irish World, March 11, 1882.]

A STRANGE ST. PATRICK'S DAY ORATOR.

Ex-Secretary Blaine is announced to speak in St. Louis at a banquet given by the Knights of St. Patrick on the evening of the 17th of March. A more unfit selection could be hardly made, as it is an insult to the intelligence of self-respecting Irish-Americans to ask them to listen on St. Patrick's day to a man who refused to stir a finger to release from British dungeons American citizens of Irish decent illegally arrested, although at the time it was his duty to see that these citizens were either accorded a trial by jury or released from prison.

Mr. Blaine is reported as having presidential aspirations. He sees no chance of getting a nomination from the republican party, and it is said that he is determined to run on an independent ticket. As Blaine is a thorough demagogue, he thinks, perhaps, that he may succeed in winning some of the Irish-American votes by figuring as one of the orators at a St. Patrick's night banquet. He forgets that his presence at such a meeting, after what he has done, is an insult to every intelligent Irishman present.

Does he for a moment suppose that American citizens with Irish blood in their veins will ever forget that when he was secretary of state he allowed American citizens residing in Ireland to be arrested and imprisoned on mere suspicion without his calling the British government to account for this violation of international law, as he was in duty bound to do?

Not to add to the obstacles of this "great English statesman," our pro-British ex-secretary of state, whilst in office, allowed American citizens to be arrested and imprisoned without trial. We can understand how this conduct would entitle him to a hearty reception at a gathering of Anglo-Americans—as, for instance, at a meeting of the society of St. George—but what claims it has upon the admiration of the Knights of St. Patrick passes our understanding.

(Irish World, December 10, 1881.)

MR. BOYNTON'S RELEASE.

Broken in health and threatened with blindness, Mr. Boynton has at length been released from Kilmainham. He passes from the prison to the hospital, there perhaps, to end his life, the latest victim to English tyranny.

There is no more shameful chapter in the history of our international relations than the one which records how this union soldier has been allowed to pine in his prison cell week after week without the government, for which he risked his life, interfering to secure for him even so much as a trial by jury. The Boynton case will ever remain a blot on our history.

The man who has been guilty of allowing this union soldier to be imprisoned without trial in a foreign country on a vague suspicion ought to be driven from public life.

IN HIS FLUNKEYISM TO THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT,

James G. Blaine has refused to protect American cittzens, whom he was bound by every principle of law to extend protection to. Such a man has no conception of what is due to the honor of the United States, and should never be placed in a position where he can disgrace our government.

We cannot write of this man without experiencing a feeling of exasperation at the thought that a flunkey has had it in its power to insult the dignity of American citizenship in the way it has been insulted. But what could you expect of one who has so little regard for the proprieties of his position as to speak of the as Mr. Blaine did when welcoming the British minister to Washington.

There is, however, another American citizen, Mr. D. McSweeney, lying in Dundalk jail, who has been arrested as a suspect, and thrown into prison without being accorded a trial by jury. No flunkeyism of James G. Blaine must stand between Mr. McSweeney and his immediate release. Congress has a positive duty to perform in this case, and the country looks to it to perform it without any loss of time.

While congratulating Mr. Boynton on his release, we feel under the obligation of thanking him for the noble heroism he displayed during his long months of his illegal imprisonment. The same courage he displayed on the battlefield in defending the flag of the union accompanied him into his prison cell, and though at any time he might have obtained his liberty by accepting the government's terms, rather than doing so he preferred facing death, and what was harder to endure perhaps than death itself, total blindness. Compare the heroism of this man with the flunkeyism of James G. Blaine, assuring the British minister of the loyalty of Americans to the English queen, and then say which has best upheld the honor of the United States.

[Irish World, Dec. 24, 1881.]

EXIT BLAINE—"HE WILL NEVER SIT IN THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIR."

Mr. Blaine has stepped down and out from the office of secretary of state. We are glad that Blaine's Anglo-Americanism will have no longer a chance to display itself in the most important position in the president's cabinet. His disgraceful conduct in the Boynton case stamps him as a man who has no conception of what is due to the dignity of American citizenship. It would have been more to the credit of the United States government if Blaine had resigned before the arrest and imprisonment, without trial, of American citizens residing in Ireland.

We understand that the ex-secretary has still hopes of reaching the object of his life ambition, viz., the presidency. We feel as certain as we can be of any future event, that James G. Blaine will never sit in the presidential chair. He is not the first whose flunkeyism to England has killed presidential aspirations. Charles Francis Adams is one example; and King, who, in the early part of this century, was minister to England, is another.

If you are troubled with sores, aches, pains and general weakness of the various bodily functions, don't be deceived by the advertisements of bitters, kidney medicines, etc., whose certificates of pretended cures, are often paid for. Put your trust in that simple remedy called Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. It will cure you by purifying the blood and strengthening the weak portions of your body. You will also find it very refreshing to the brain and nervous system. The proprietors receive hundreds of letters bestowing upon it the highest praise.

A Card from Captain Scott Swann.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL:

My attention having been called to an article in your paper wherein you state that I would be the loser on account of grand reunion and other matters, I wish to make this statement: That when the reunion commenced several of the merchants would not sell goods to the veteran association without a guarantee. To this we have no right to find fault, as the association was without credit and were not in shape for collections to be made on them. Colonel Zollinger, Captain Barnard, Captain Boltz, myself and others came forward and guaranteed many bills, which of course made us under obligations to pay. At the first meeting of the committee after the reunion it it was resolved to pay all claims against the association and each member agreed to stand his portion; if there was not enough money in the treasury for this purpose. The committee received from many citizens offers of money if we were short.

All of the money collected on subscription was paid to our treasurer and none was paid out without the proper vouchers, and I believe that every cent paid by our citizens to the committee, either at the gate or on subscription was properly accounted for. There were some reports sent me that some outsiders, self-appointed gate keepers, and others did not turn over any or all of the money taken in by them. Of this I have no positive evidence and prefer to think that it is all a mistake.

The committee will make a final report to the people as soon as all matters are settled up.

If all subscriptions, donations and privileges are paid, the committee will have enough to pay all indebtedness, osherwise the committee will have to assess themselves to settle up. We hope that all those behind either in subscription, donation or privilege will come forward immediately and settle.

SCOTT SWANN,
Chairman Executive Committee.

Why is it

That the sale of Hood's Sarsaparilla continues at such a rapidly increasing rate? It is—

1st: Because of the positive curative value of Hood's Sarsaparilla itself.

2d: Because of the conclusive evidence of remarkable cures effected by it, unsurpassed and seldom equaled by any other medicine.

COLONEL McCLURE, of the Philadelphia Times, who has been up at Saratoga Springs, where he saw and talked with John Kelly, writes to his paper that Tammany Hall in due time will endorse the nomination of Cleveland. He also says: "Anthing approaching democratic unity will give Cleveland the state by an overwhelming majority, and it is now obvious to all that democratic unity is more than possible. The social scandal, so unwisely started against Cleveland and even more unwisely encouraged by prominent Blaine organs, is now reacting powerfully in Cleveland's favor and it must continue to strengthen him until election day. It was the maddest of all political blunders and its effect in New York, where Cleveland's public and private integrity are confessed by all fair minded men, is likely to be very great."

The Boyle case comes up in the supreme court, at Indianapolis, September 15, and Prosecutor Dawson, for the state, and Henry Colerick, for the defense, will appear before the tribunal and argue the case.

Louis Crauser, who is a masher in his sphere, was before the mayor this morning for striking Mrs. Fredestka Shoulter. It cost him $25 and he decided to board it out on the stone pile, where he can mash something besides married women.

H. C. Townsend, general passenger agent of the Missouri Pacific road, was in the city to-day en route east. Mr. Townsend formerly held a similar position on the Wabash road and stopped to see his friend, Mr. McConnell, the Wabash ticket agent here.

Miss Mary Slates, of Chicago, who has been visiting Ambrose Geary and sisters for the past month, returned to her home last Saturday. Miss Slates is an accomplished young lady and made many friends while here, who deeply regret her early departure.

Drs. Sweringen and McCausland had a very dangerous and difficult case of obstetrics yesterday, at 153 Montgomery street, but the mother and child are doing as well as could be expected at this writing. It is a case, we are told, exactly like that of the daughter of the late Louis Embry, the lady who so recently died in Cleveland. The majority of these cases prove fatal.

When J. I. Case was in the city Saturday, he told Will McKinnie that he made $9,000 profit on his meeting at Philadelphia, where Jay-Eye-See and Phallas trotted. Mr. Case said he refused an offer of $45,000 for Jay-Eye-See, "but I propose to keep the little horse," said Mr. Case, "until he makes Maud S. trot a little faster than she has yet." Mr. Case was en route to Racine, Wis., his home.

An express train on the Muncie road ran over and killed a deaf man named Charles Kirby, who was walking on the track a short distance south of Bluffton, Saturday night. He was seen by the engineer, who supposed he would step off the track before the train reached him, and the train was too close to stop when it was seen he was paying no attention to its approach. He was thirty years of age and unmarried, and a resident at Poneto, four miles south of Bluffton.

Sadie B. Tedeger, quite a blooming young woman, was granted a divorce today in the circuit court by Judge O'Rourke. Sadie accused her husband, Fred Tedeger, with adultery and Minnie Brown substantiated the matter. Mr. Tedeger did a cheap jewelry business.

In anticipation of heavy crops and increased activity of general trade, the Pennsylvania railway company is getting its equipment in condition for a large business during the fall. The cars are being made of the standard capacity of 50,000 pounds each, an increase of 10,000 pounds, and the whole freight service is undergoing repairs.

J. Q. Stratton walked out this morning for the first time since his recent injury. His neck is tightly bandaged but he experiences no further trouble. His sister, a very estimable lady, came up from Wabash Saturday to see him. Mr. Stratton appeared in the Richards case this afternoon. THE SENTINEL is always with under men in the battle of life and hopes to see Mr. Stratton brace up and be a man.

The funeral of the venerable Mrs. Conrad Viberg, of Cedar Creek township, occurred yesterday. The cortege was the largest in the history of the township, and at the Lutheran chapel Rev. Enos Erick preached an eloquent funeral oration in which he paid a nice tribute to the character of Mrs. Viberg. The interment was in the Lutheran cemetery, near the chapel. Among those present from the city were Mr. and Mrs. DeGroff Nelson, Charles A. Munson, Judge S. M. Hench, James M. Kane, M. V. B. Spencer, Al Friend, Will Shambaugh and a SENTINEL representative.

The Lancaster (O.) Republican says that: "The wedding of Miss Anna Cavanaugh, a charming young lady of this city, and Mr. Daniel Jocquel, of Fort Wayne, Ind., was celebrated in the St. Mary's Catholic church, Tuesday morning, Father Filger, performing the ceremony. The bride was richly attired and the bridal group consisted of the high contracting parties and their attendants, Miss Katie Kavanaugh and Jerry Shehan, presented an attractive appearance. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable presents, and has the best wishes of a legion of friends for her future welfare and happiness."

The following letters are advertised at the Fort Wayne postoffice: Leonard Austin, A. D. Berlmer, Mrs. M. A. Clark, Abram Dobson, Fred Devine, Lemuel Devault, Mrs. E. Ervin, E. Ferney, Emma Fox, C. Phillips, Silas M. Stockwell, Ed Stade, A. Stutenhaven, Lib Stable, Louis Shopal, Mrs. Edgar Smith, Ethel Tranilbee, Mrs. E. A. West, W. A. Wagoner, Mary young.

The Auburn (Ill.) Citizen says that: "A large crowd of people gathered on the west side of the public square, Friday night, and also Saturday morning to hear the addresses of Mason Long, the reformed gambler, and the singers who accompany him. Mr. Long is a fine speaker, earnest, fluent, humorous at times, pathetic at others, and always absorbingly interesting. His plan of speaking from his wagon has the advantage of reaching the class most needing to hear. The gentlemen composing the choir are well trained singers, and it is not too much to say that no such singing was ever heard before on our streets. Their rendering of 'Speed Away,' and 'Rocking on the Billows of the Deep,' particularly, we have never heard excelled. Mr. Long's sermons cannot fail to accomplish vast good. Mr. Long sold seventy-seven copies of his three books here and received $19 in contributions."

SABBATH SINNERS.

A Naughty Hunting Expedition Almost Closes the Career of Christ Schnedker --His Breast Filled With Bird Shot by An Emigrant.

Christ Schnedker, of West street, went into the country yesterday on a little gunning expedition with two fellows just over from Germany. The trio hunted out into the prairie southwest of the city, and finally saw a squirrel peeping at them from a log. The three men pulled up their guns at once, but the weapon in the hands of one of the emigrants was discharged prematurely and Mr. Schnedker received the load of shot square in the breast. The wounded man threw up his hands, reeled and fell in a heap. He was carried to the railroad and thence to his home in this city on a hand car. The shot was fine and while a few bullets went into his lungs no danger to his life is apprehended. The shot was purely accidental but the fellow from Germany is nearly crazed from grief and fear. Schnedker is resting nicely and hereafter will read the religious notes in THE SENTINEL and select a suitable place of worship by way of Sabbath enjoyment.

A BORDER TRAGEDY.

A Crabid Farmer Fatally Carves His Wife and Puts a Load of Buckshot Through His Brain--The End of a Family Quarrel.

Mr. M. Shell, of Hicksville, Ohio, sends THE SENTINEL the particulars of a terrible tragedy near the Allen county border line Saturday night. John Sawyer and his wife lived on a farm three miles from Hicksville. Mr. Sawyer is crabid and a short time ago his wife applied for a divorce. Saturday night the fellow met his wife and proposed a settlement of their domestic affairs. The woman repelled the offer and, with the fury of a mad man, Sawyer siezed his wife and with a dirk knife cut and slashed her in a most frightful manner. The flesh hung in shreds from her arms, face and beast, and the blood oozed from a dozen severed arteries. In this way Sawyer left his victim and fled to the woods near by, where he sent a load of buckshot into his skull, shattering it into a thousand pieces and scattering brain substance to the four winds. The gun report attracted neighbors and Mrs. Sawyer was discovered in time to save her life. She was pale as death, but her wounds were tightly wrapped with cloth until a surgeon arrived to bind the blood vessels. D. G. Huffman, a justice of the peace, held an inquest on Sawyer, saying his act was with a suicidal intent. Of course, Mrs. Sawyer is very low, but our correspondent has faith in her recovery.

A GIFTED JADE.

A Pretty Michigan Blonde Captured in This City by Her Papa--Jim Wilkinson Acts the Philanthropist--She Returns Home With the Added Charm of Experience.

Some five weeks ago there appeared on the streets of this city a nicely formed maiden of a blondish hue, about eighteen years old. The every day mashers at once set about to capture her but failed. It transpired that a member of the Saginaw base ball club brought her to the city and she was badly stuck on him. He took her to Logansport and Indianapolis and at the latter place shook her. She wandered back to this city and proceeded to do a general and promiscuous business in her line. Several bloods caught on. Among the rest was one who lives luxuriantly in the Keystone block. He dressed her as a Grecian queen, but she did not bob up serenely every evening, and the gay youth discovered her to be in the company of Lighthall's Indians. This, of course, was too rank and the maiden with bleached hair was homeless and had to pound the pave. She went to the Hedekin house to seek lodging one night and Jim Wilkinson was grieved to see her in such straits of debauchery and told her to stay and then telegraphed to Coldwater, Michigan, where she claimed she had rich parents. A reply came immediately to hold the wayward girl. In the meantime philanthropic Jim questioned her and found that an over-bearing step-mother was the cause of her escapades. Her father and mother promptly arrived in the city and were overjoyed to find their daughter and the reconciliation was quite affecting. The trio started to their Michigan home happy. The girl is finely educated, a splendid pianist and extremely pretty. A few days ago the News had an item about the girl being discovered on the river bank one morning.

"FIRST AND LAST PLACE."

Dan Hutzell's Nebraska Saloon Raided by Thieves--The Place of S. A. Drew Entered and Nice Hauls Made at Each House.

It is quite evident a gang of local crooks are working the town and they operate so slick that the cops can't catch on. Friday night they fleeced Zoeller & Merz, in the Sixth ward, and last night they worked their racket in Nebraska. First they entered the saloon of S. A. Drew, on West Main street, and stole cigars, wines and liquors. In the front part is a candy store and barber shop, owned by Gottlieb Keller. From him they took four razors and about ten pounds of sweets.

Then the train moved west to Don Hutzell's joint, near Eckert's pork-packing house. Dan is famous from his sign, on the west side of which is the inscription, "First Place." On the east side of the shingle he has painted, "Last Place." In this way Dan works the trade from both directions and besides had a plank walk running to the fair grounds. The thieves got into Hutzell's place easily and carried the whole shop away. They did not leave Hutzell enough liquor to wet his whistle this morning and he is the most ferocious man in town. The police have no clue to the thieves, and estimate the loss at both places somewhere in the neighborhood of $100.

Thieves broke into the grocery store of Zoeller & Merz, on South Calhoun street, Friday night and stole three boxes of cigars and $20 in gold. There was in the store safe $500. The police kept the matter quiet.

The testimony of many who long suffered from ill health, caused by an impure state of the blood, goes to prove that the best remedy for making the blood rich, red and pure, for beautifying the complexion, for curing sores, pimples and other skin diseases, for removing aches, pains, stiff joints, rheumatism, etc., for increasing the power of endurance, for giving health and strength to every weak portion of the body, is Dr. Graysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. Its effect pleases the user in every instance. No other remedy equals it.

The Arion singing society will meet at their hall to-morrow (Tuesday) evening. Every member is earnestly requested to be present, as business of importance will be transacted.

Byron never uttered truer words than when he said, "Physicians end or mend us." But while doctors disagree, all the world has agreed that there is no remedy equal to Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

A woman was adjudged insane at the St. Joe hospital to-day.

Rev. Father Mahoney, dean, St. Mary's Cathedral, Sydney, N. S. W., Australia, writes, that all who used St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain cure, were greatly benefitted and speak highly of it. 50 cents a bottle.

The new Catholic branch school, which opened in the Bond building on South Calhoun street this morning was quite conspicuous. Eighty little boys and girls were enrolled, and before many days the two good sisters in charge will have all they can do in the new school to care for their pupils, as the number will certainly grow. This school is a great advantage for the South town people, and one for which they will certainly feel grateful to the good Bishop Dwenger.

Blessed be the man who invented sleep, and blessed be he who discovered Athlophoros, for the man or woman afflicted with rheumatism or neuralgia would be unable to enjoy the benefits of sleep were it not for the aid of this great specific remedy. Mr. C. S. Starr, of 28 State street, New London, Conn., writes of a friend of his, for years a sufferer from rheumatism, who, after taking one dose of Athlophoros, with remarkable results, repeated it at bed time, and was able to rest all night long. This he had not been able to do for years.

Pete Maguire's Injuries.

To the Editor of The Sentinel.

Dear Sir: In reference to the youth, Peter Maguire, who was so badly burned last week, I want to say it was caused by gasoline, which the boy had put on his clothes while playing back of Mr. Muirhead's wood yard. A lad named Shiers, a tenant of the elder Maguire, set a match to the boy's clothing and ran off. He afterwards denied the fact. Owen Maguire, father of the afflicted boy, has the sympathy of a large circle friends, who will be glad to hear that the little fellow is rapidly improving. He is about fourteen years old.

A Friend.

Your cough is growing worse. The soreness and pain in the throat and lungs is increasing. Better get rid of the absurd idea that anything will cure a cough or cold, and give Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry a trial before it is too late. It never fails to check consumption and quickly cures all coughs and colds.

The case against Governor Ireland, of Texas, has been dismissed by the United States authorities.

The weak, worn and dyspeptic should take Colden's Liquid Beef Ton. Ask for Colden's, of druggists.

Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar overpowers the most troublesome cough.

Of Great Value to Vocalists

Unionville, Westchester Co., N. Y. August 20, 1882.

I had carelessly exposed myself and sustained a very severe and tight cold on my chest and in my throat. I procured Allcock's Porous Plasters and applied one on the chest, well up on the throat, and relief came readily; the soreness of my chest was removed, and my vocal organs were kept clear the entire past winter, enabling me to fulfill public engagements in different parts of this country.

No more may be said than that Allcock's Porous Plasters, if applied by afflicted vocalists, will greatly assist their vocal rendition in public.

Fruit House Prices for 1884.

For the last six months there has been a steady decline on Sugars. They are now selling at the lowest point they have been for twenty years. Coffee A, 7½c.; Coffee C, 6c.; Yellow New Orleans, 6c.; Cut Loaf and granulated, 8c.

RIO COFFEE

Has advanced in New York 3 cents per pound. We fortunately had purchased a large stock before the advance and continue to sell at old prices. Best Golden Rio, 18½c.; Roasted Rio 18c.; Old Government Java, 30c.; Roasted Java, 35c.

TEAS: Japan, Young Hyson,

Oolong and English Breakfast.

Our great Tea trade is the wonder of this part of the country. There is no secret in it; it is simply our purchasing our Teas in large lots, direct of the importers in New York and reselling direct to our customers at small profit. This saves to our customers the intermediate profits of the jobber, speculator and wholesale merchant, which is at least 10 to 20 cents per pound Young Hyson, 15c., 30c.; best, 50. per pound; Gunpowder, 25c.; best, 50c. per pound; Imperial, 30c.; best, 50c. per pound; Oolong, 15c., 30c.; best. 50c. per pound; Japan, 20c., 30c.; best, 50c per pound; English Breakfast 30c.; best, 50c. per pound.

But the Greatest Decline and Bargains of All is on Prunes.

The best Turkish Prunes now reduced to 6 cents per pound. They are new fruit and finest in the market. The low price of Prunes is owing to the fact that Turkey had an immense crop this last season. Never in the history of the country have they been sold so cheap as at the present time.

Canned Fruit, Peaches, Tomatoes, Etc.
